FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RONALD BRATTON,

Plaintiff,

v

No. C 07-2928 JSW (PR)

"Notice of Change of Address"

BEN CURRY, Warden et al.,
Defendants,

The plaintiff RONALD BRATTON in the above named case hereby informs the court of an address change to the above address. Just as the plaintiff had forewarned the court, The defendants in this case transferred the plaintiff, to another institution, (higher level III, from II) without the Due Process given to inmates as directed by the California Code of Regulations Title XV 3375(A) Involuntary transfer to a higher security level facility, which is not consistent with the inmate's placement score. I have ^{neither} ~~been~~ a "Chrono" designating the change, nor a CSR placement endorsement.

Now the inmate is in that higher level institution, which is new, and has been, under lock-down procedures for five months, So now plaintiff cannot attend library but once a week, on Saturdays only, and probably will not be able to make deadlines after and if he will receive his mail without a two week to month delay, which the institution at CTF is known for. The CTF institution has been known for a long time to use these tactics ^{to} delay and/or get suit dropped. I am appealing all of the adverse through emergency appeal.

Dated April 16, 2008
